

Announcement of Schedule of Election to the Office of the Vice-President of India

Friday, 1st August 2025, 12:53 PM

The Election Commission of India has released the schedule for the 17th Vice-Presidential Election.

Key dates include nomination filing, scrutiny, and polling.

All candidates must comply with eligibility criteria.

Election notifications have been circulated to all states and UTs.

Procedures for electronic voting and ballot papers are clarified.

Returning officers have been appointed in each state.

Guidelines for campaign conduct and expenditure are provided.

Voter lists for the Electoral College are finalized.

Training of polling and counting staff will begin shortly.

Security arrangements are being coordinated with authorities.

The Commission emphasizes adherence to electoral code of conduct.

Official circulars are available for public reference.